

15-September

All five of us arrive Ljubljana at 17:45 on Adria flight #113 from Frankfurt.
Transfer to the Grand Hotel Toplice in Lake Bled

16-September

We plan to take it easy in Lake Bled. In the afternoon we might want to hike Vintgar Gorge depending how everyone feels

17-September

Tour the Julian Alps. I trust your judgment as to where we go.

18-September

Drive to Ljubljana. I have booked Maja Llov for four hours beginning at 10:00 to show us around the city. If you can arrange for us to meet your cousin Jakov while we are in town, that would be great.

Continue on to the Monte Mulini Hotel in Rovinj.

19-September

We plan to spend the morning in Rovinj.

Leave for Pula around 13:00. I have booked Ljerka Mikić for three hours beginning at 14:00 to show us around.

20-September

Tour Motovun and other hill towns (your choice.) I think we'll just plan to eat truffles (maybe in Brtonigla) instead of hunting for them. I'm fine with your suggestion of visiting Hum as long as we can get back to Rovinj around 15-16:00...I'm looking to have a bit more "free" time to just hang out in town.

21-September

Drive to the Pula airport in time for European Coastal Airlines 10:00 flight (#4231/3421) to Split. This will give us the day to tout the city while you transport our luggage to the Hotel Vestibul Palace

22-September

Begin the day around 08:00 and drive to Krka NP. I'm thinking that you take us to the Skradin entrance. We'll take the boat to Skradinski Bulk, hike a bit, and then take the bus to the Lozovac entrance where we would meet you for the return to Split.

23-September

We have a 10:50 European Coastal Airline flight (#1022) to Korcula (Lumbarda). You'll have a couple of days free from my group. Once again, due to the luggage weight restrictions, we will need you to transport our luggage to our pickup point in Orebic.

24-September

We'll be in Korcula

25-September

I plan to take a 10:00 ferry to Orebic (but could leave earlier). Drive through wine country (no need to stop at a winery unless you have a great recommendation). Spend an hour or so in Ston. Have lunch in Mali Ston. Then continue to the Villa Dubrivnik.

26-September

I have booked Alberto Frka for the day to guide us through Dubrovnik. He is suggesting a drive to Cavtat for lunch as well as driving up to Srdj Hill (instead of the cable car.) I'm thinking that we can determine the exact transportation needs once we get to Dubrovnik.

27-September

My friends will be departing on a 07:25 flight, so I'll let them deal with getting transportation to the airport. I have booked Dragana Musikic who we will meet in Perast, spend some time there and then continue to Kotor. The meeting time with Dragana is still to be determined. You had suggested visiting Njegos for the views and for prshuto. I love great views, and if prshuto is the same as prosciutto, I love that as well. If we have the time, let's certainly try to fit Njegos in.

28-September

Head to Mostar around 09:00. Spend a few hours there (I did not book a guide) and then head off to the City Boutique Hotel in Sarajevo where we say our goodbyes.
