

Follow the signs for Regional Trains or S-Bahn. (look for the big green S) This station is under Terminal 1 by Arrival Hall B-1, and the signs will be in English. Just take the escalator downstairs and for Frankfurt, go to track #1. This is where the S-bahns 8 and 9 normally stop The S-Bahn trains going in the right direction will have signs that indicate they are headed to either Hanau Hauptbahnhof or Offenbach Ost.

Frankfurt (Main) Flughafen Regionalbahnhof

Frankfurt (Main) Stadion

Frankfurt (Main) Niederrad Bahnhof

Frankfurt (Main) Hauptbahnhof (Main Station)

Frankfurt (Main) Taunusanlage

Frankfurt (Main) Hauptwache – Stop near Romerberg

If you want to go to the airport via S-Bahn, take the S8 or S9 in the direction of Wiesbaden and jump off at F-Flughafen (airport station).

A group day ticket, called a "Collective Ticket" on the ticket machine (Gruppen karte) will cost 15.80 €. This ticket is good for up to 5 people and is valid all day long, getting to and from the airport and on all forms of transportation in Frankfurt.

The RMV and DB (Deutsche Bahn) share ticket machines and they are all touch screens. They switch into English and are fairly user friendly. The machines take coins, 5 and 10 euro bills for single tickets and if you are getting a group ticket it will take a 20 euro bill. It will NOT take a 50 euro bill. Change will be in coins.

RMV machines do not take American credit cards for local travel, but the DB does for longer distance tickets.

In Frankfurt you do not need to validate your ticket unlike some other cities in Germany. It is all on the honor system. If you do not have a valid ticket, you will be fined 60 euro immediately.

There is a DB Travel Center located right next to the escalators for the Regional Train Station. They can print your tickets for you (this will cost you 2 euro), take credit cards for payments and give you information about schedules.
