

Shopping in Oslo

Shops in Oslo are generally open 10:00-18:00. Many close early on Saturday and all day Sunday. Shopping centers are open Monday through Friday 10:00-21:00, Saturday 9:00-18:00, and are closed Sunday. Remember, when you make a purchase of 315 kr or more, you can get the 25 percent tax refunded when you leave the country if you hang on to the paperwork.

Oslo's fanciest department store is GlasMagasinet (top end, near the cathedral on Stortorvet, good souvenir shop). The big, splashy Byparten mall, adjoining the central train station, is more youthful and hip (Mon-Fri 10:00-21:00, Sat 10:00-20:00, closed Sun). The trendiest boutiques and chic, high-quality shops lie along the street named Bogstadveien (running from behind the Royal Palace to Frogner Park). And on Saturday mornings, you can browse the flea market at Vestkanttorvet (March-Nov only, two blocks east of Frogner Park at the corner of Professor Dahl's Gate and Neuberggatae).

Sweaters and colorful Norwegian folk crafts are on many visitors' shopping lists. The Husfliden shop, in the basement of the GlasMagasinet department store, is much appreciated for its traditional yarn and Norsk folk items (Mon-Fri 10:00-18:00, Thu until 19:00, Sat 10:00-16:00, closed Sun, tel. 22 42 10 75). For a superb selection of sweaters and other Norwegian crafts (top quality at high prices), visit Heimen Husfliden (Mon-Fri 10:00-18:00, Sat 10:00-15:00, closed Sun, Rosenkrantz Gate 8, tel. 22 41 40 50). The Oslo Sweater Shop has good prices for sweaters (Mon-Fri 10:00-18:00, Sat 10:00-15:00, closed Sun, in Radisson Blu Scandinavia
