

From: Athens Walking Tours [mailto:info@athenswalkingtours.gr]

Sent: Tuesday, February 22, 2011 12:47 AM

To: roy@roydeb.com

Subject: Re: Roy Giampoli - Contact Submission From Athens Walking Tours WebSite.

Dear Roy,

Thanks for your response ;

I concentrated more on the sites and Museums because otherwise the program would become too long and hence more tiring; my second thought was that probably you wanted to see some places on your own and you would have a guide with you at places where you need a guide to show and explain.

I would then make following modifications trying to really show you another Athens from what the average tourist sees. You will see things you never thought they would exist It will be an experience

Day 1 September 2 .

I would suggest to start the tour at Syntagma Square where is also our meeting point.

We will visit the Syntagma metro Museum, the Syntagma Square , through the National Gardens on to the Zappeion Hall, then we visit the Zeus Temple , the Hadrian's Arch, the Panathenaic Stadium, The Lysicrates Monument, through the Dionysus Sanctuary which we will also visit to the Acropolis of Athens ..

.You will come down from the Acropolis from the Northern side where the Anafiotika area is and stop for an ouzo at "Dioskouri" cafe in Anafiotika . We then shortly visit the Roman Forum and the Agora and have lunch at some restaurant on Adrianou road which is at Theisseion with a nice view and atmosphere .You will be a lot in town any way by this tour. Syntagma Square, Dionyssiou Arepagitou road where we will get some coffee, By the National Gardens and at the same time this program is very rich in Archaeological visits and sights

This tour will last about 8 hours and the price for a party up to 10 people would then be 630 Euro divided into the number of participants up to 10 people .This will be a private tour

Day 2 September 3

We can start this tour by Monastiraki metro station . walk through Psirri taste Bougatsa (taste the delicious breakfast of the Northern Greeks at Plateia Iroon) , walk towards the central Market of Athens , walk on Athena's road , on to Omonoia Square ; Rich in colors and smells place traditional goodies ., on to Omonoia Square and on to The National Museum . This will be the most original and interesting walk you can ever do in Athens The tour will last about five hours and the cost would be 490 Euro o divided into the number of Participants . This will be a private tour

I did not include Lekka or Kolokotroni as they are completely out of the route to the sites . I tried to combine highly interesting places of modern Athens with sites and Museums .

Lekka and Kolokotroni are shopping roads without any special interest as Athena's road or Plateia Iroon, or Adrianou road or Dioskouri cafe .

Please do tell me your thoughts

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Despina Savvidou
Athens Walking Tours
www.athenswalkingtours.gr